Sir,

With reference to your No 3065 Edn dated 10th Oct 1904, I have the honor to state that the reply already sent in this office no 914 dated 6th Oct 1904 with respect to the extension of our College teaching in other directions may be taken as applying to this also

I have seen in the papers that the experiment of Travancore in having a Law College department

7 Jan relates to the opening of all external classes of the Central College in the Fort Grade Collection 7 one & is sent to the [illegible] 12/10/04-department has not been a success in many ways and that Government was thinking of abolishing the same. The remote distance of Travancore from Madras should give a reason for its being continued there which does not apply to Mysore, being within easy access of Madras

I have the honor to be
